

Finding the Evidence for Evidence-Based Practice: Using the Child Abuse Library Online (CALiO™)

www.calio.org

2020

A large selection of full text and freely accessible resources is available to professionals and the public without membership in the Child Abuse Library Online (CALiO™).

Places in CALiO™ to find Forensic Interviewing Resources

- CALiO's™ Bibliography section provides over 20 topical FI bibliographies to the research literature Bibliography page
- CALiO's™ Research to Practice section provides Research to Practice briefs, NCAC position papers, and much more on a variety of FI topics Research to Practice page
- CALiO's™ Best Practices provides numerous FI guidelines and resources Forensic Interviewing Best Practices page
- Takeaway Tuesday provides micro-learning units with short video lessons on a variety of forensic interview topics

Beyond CALiO™ section

- Public databases: over 30 unrestricted databases and digital collections
- Open access journals-over 40 unrestricted journals

Not sure where to look? Enter your keyword or subject into the CALiO™Collections search box.

Short and simple CALiO™ tutorials here: CALiO get help and tutorials page

Restricted access sections

- CALiO™SuperSearch contains millions of full text articles, book chapters, conference proceedings, newspaper articles, and more.
- Access to the collection of over 1,600 scholarly journals and books, CALiO™SuperSearch and the Special Collections is limited to Children’s Advocacy Center staff and Multidisciplinary Teams.

CALiO’s Restricted Access section currently provides full text publications in 15 FI topics. See below:

The screenshot shows the CALiO website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the CALiO logo on the left and a menu on the right containing 'Home', 'About', 'Resources', 'Browse CALiO™', 'Get Help', 'Newsroom', 'Registered CAC Resources', and 'CALiO™ Blog'. Below the navigation bar is a blue header with the text 'Forensic Interviewing of Children-Research'. The main content area is white and contains a list of research topics. The text reads: 'Research focusing on official issues affecting child forensic interviewing is available full text and arranged by topics below. Topics are listed alphabetically.' This is followed by a list of 15 topics: 'Special report: Newlin, C. Steele, L. C., Chamberlin, A., Anderson, J., Kervinton, J., Russel, A., Stewart, H. & Vaughn-Eaton, V. (2016). Child Forensic Interviewing: Best Practices. Juvenile Justice Bulletin: NCJ 248742. Washington, DC: U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Programs.', 'Bias Among Forensic Interviewers', 'Documenting the Forensic Interview', 'Effects of Interviewer Gender on Disclosure', 'Episodic and Script Memory', 'Forensic Elements in Children's Disclosures', 'Forensic Interviews at Trial', 'Interpreters in Forensic Interviews of Children', 'Interviewing Children with Disabilities', 'Interviewing Child Witnesses of Violent Crime', 'Interviewing Preschoolers', 'Narrative Practice in Forensic Interviews', 'Peer Review, Supervision, and Training', 'Question Types in Forensic Interviews of Children', 'Rapport Building', 'Temporal Aspects in Child Forensic Interviews', and 'Recent Forensic Interview Research'.

If your CAC is not registered for the restricted access portions of CALiO™, complete and submit the registration form located here: CALiO registration information page

For assistance, contact:

Muriel K. Wells, M.Ed. MLIS
Digital Information Librarian
256-327-3854
mwells@nationalcac.org